

KATIE MACINTOSH

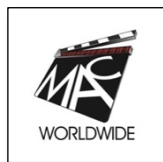

With years of success in the unscripted television world, Katie has become one of the most recognizable and reputable names in the business. Her development skills are grounded in true doc-series formats, and she has been singled out for her ability to find compelling characters that have provided direct to series orders, high network ratings, and multiple series franchises.

She has cast some of the most highly rated reality programs ever produced, including Bravo's 'The Real Housewives of Orange County', 'Big Brother' for CBS, 'Life Below Zero' for National Geographic and 'Outlast' for Netflix. Her work has covered the vast majority of network and streaming platforms and has been recognized and awarded by the Television Academy, Teen Choice Awards, and C21/Frapa at MIPCOM.

A highly-hyphenated industry vet, Katie is a passionate producer with a deep understanding of storytelling and has boots on the ground as a director for Channel 5 in the UK. She is a sought-after development partner, delivering original concepts and dynamic casts in collaboration with Talos Films, Smuggler Entertainment, A&E and BBC Worldwide Productions.

A frequent podcast guest, Katie also proudly serves as an expert and judge on several industry related panels. She is on the Motion Picture Nominating Committee for the 31st Annual Screen Actors Guild Awards, serves as a judge for the Daytime Emmys and Children's and Family Emmys and was selected to be a juror for The 15th Annual Realscreen Awards at The Realscreen Summit 2025. She is a member of The Television Academy, NATPE, The Academy Museum and Film Independent.

Katie is the president of Mac Worldwide, Inc. based out of Los Angeles and Miami. Originally from Michigan (and a recent boomerang) she is taking the Detroit market by storm and will be opening her mid-west office in 2025, coinciding with the launch of her podcast.
